ADMINISTRATION

Margaret Epley, secretary; Mrs. Cooper, acting secretary during Mrs. Epley's absence; Dorothy Gregory, guidance counselor.

...melts in your mouth, not in your hand ...

That WAS the punch line!

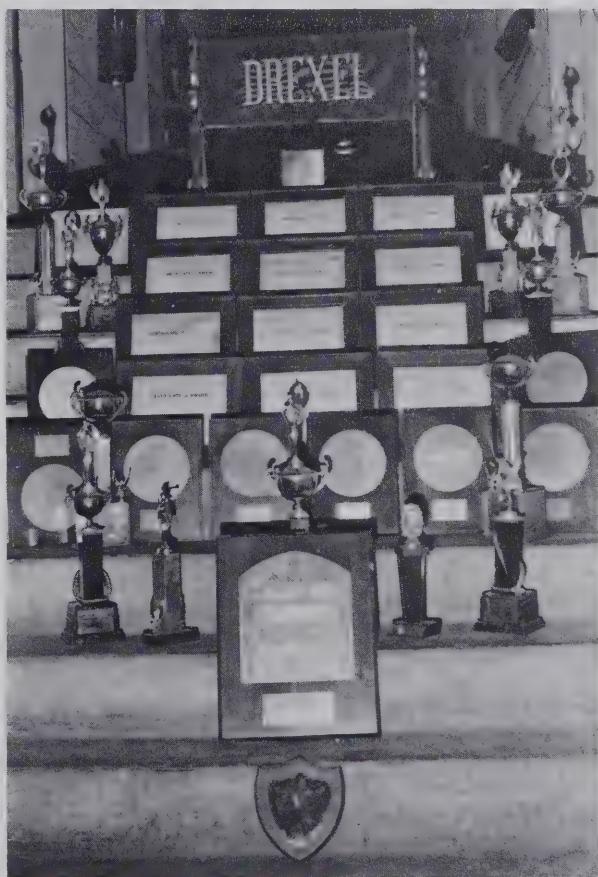

Break your neck trying to blow your horn.

Concentration and team work are keys to good music.

CHORUS

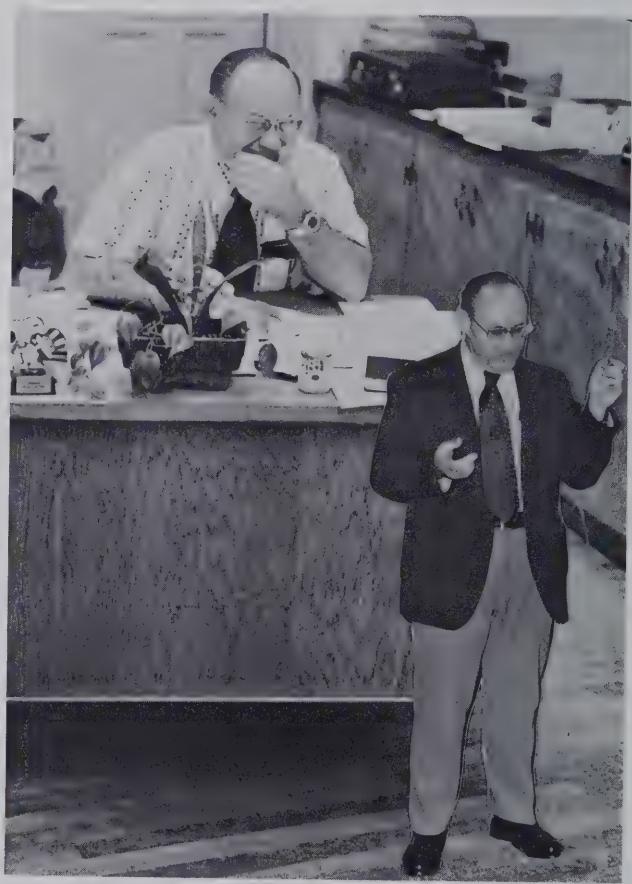

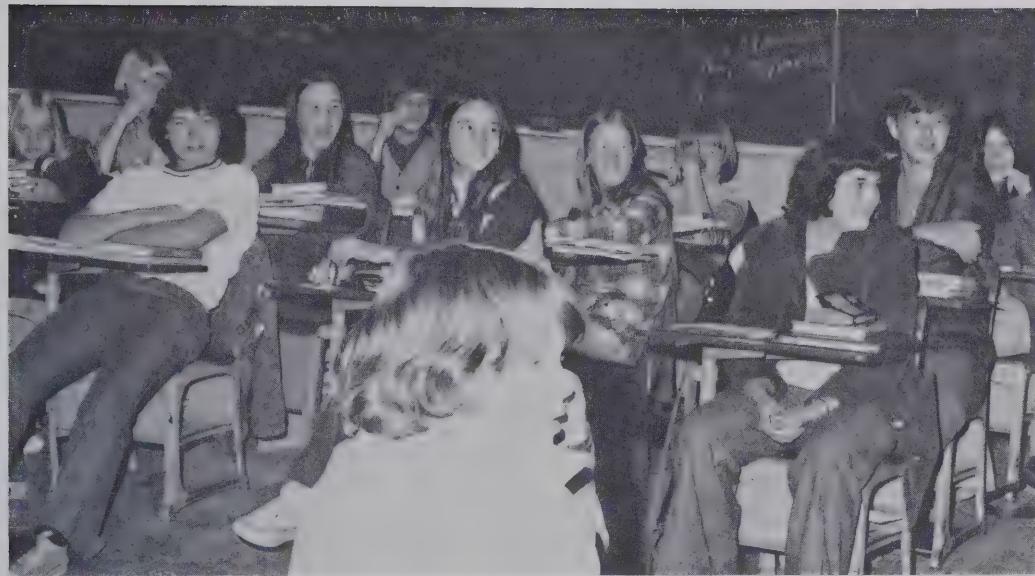

1974 Student Council officers for the 8th grade are: Kim Cozart, president; Michel Fulmer, vice-president; Teresa Anthony, secretary; Heather Bock, treasurer.

Carrying out her job as secretary, Mrs. Foster always has time to greet you with a smile.

Principal, Mr. Grill, is a man of many faces!

What's going on in the corner
of this room?

Here comes the good part!

Ronald, not you Donald

Teacher, I can't wait no longer!!

SOPHOMORES

D.H.S. was proud to welcome its one hundred and six Sophomores this year and knows that they will make a powerful addition to East Burke next year. Knowing the many talents they possess, we're sure they will take the lead and uphold the Drexel tradition.

SENIORS

"We've come a long way, baby, to get where we've got to today." But there's no stop signs for us now. The gate has been opened and the road is ours to travel, to take any exit or by-pass we choose. Maybe our lives will come to an intersection in years to come and we can look back on all the mileage we've covered together.

I heard he sang a new song
I heard he had a style
And so I came to see him
And listen for a while . . .

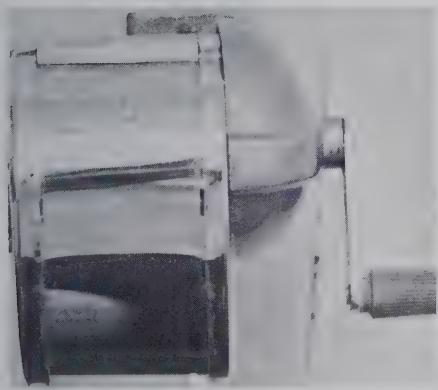

Killing me softly with his song
Telling my whole life with his words
Killing me softly – with his song.

And so she sang, with the voice that enraptured the judges and the entire audience to win her the title, Miss Drexel Fair, 1973-1974. Ms. Marvena Connelly, a rising senior, is the first Black to hold that particular title and even though that made no difference in itself it certainly added a bit more color to the fair. Ms. Connelly reigned over Drexel Fair with all the flair of a natural born queen and she thought it was fun and so did we.

I got that feeling
It's in my head, cornbread
I got that feeling
It's in my nose, I think its froze
I got that feeling
It's in my lips, I can not kiss
I got that feeling
It's in my neck, ah heck
I got that feeling
It's on the locker, a pint of vodka
I got that feeling
It's on the roof, 100 proof
I got that feeling
It's in my arm, Boonesfarm
I got that feeling
It's on the table, Black label
I got that feeling
It's in my hips, potato chips
I got that feeling
It's in my leg, I think they're dead.

Splendor, eminence, honors, memories — this was the Drexel High Band of 1974. A conglomeration of experienced and inexperienced musicians transformed sheets of notes into the universal language of music.

With the upbeat and downbeat of a baton, Miss Katheryn Siphers had magically touched the lives of these young masters and for her they put forth their finest endeavors.

Hour after hour, would-be melodies were emitted from the band room where Miss Siphers conducted regular music classes. Perfection would come with practice, and she spent many dedicated hours after school working with her students to attain that perfection.

For 22 years the Drexel High Band had been rated superior because of the persistence, understanding, and willingness beyond the call of duty exhibited by Miss Siphers. Feats that once seemed inconceivable became realities. She once said "It's (music) an obsession, but a magnificent one." In a unique way, this obsession for only the best represents a major portion of the heritage of the Drexel High School Band, and that will undoubtedly outshine even the best of days that are to come.

Don't let it be forgot that,

FOR ONE BRIEF SHINING MOMENT

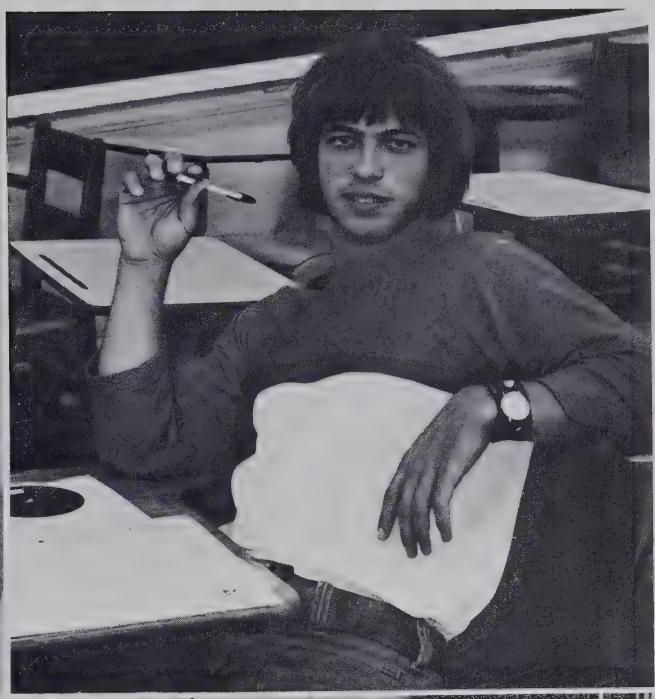

there lived the
